Chapter 1 by Bailey Rhodus

It was a dark night and the moon turned into this crimson color. There in the moons glow was this pretty girl with long wavey hair and royal blue eyes. What she didn't know was that her fate would change. It would change from her getting beat by her family and bullied at school

Chapter 2 by miss mystery

I had seen her life even if she didn't know me. I was going to make her life better. Besides no one here saw her as anything of worth, while she was my everything. I tapped her shoulder while she was staring at the moon. She seemed frightened. "It's okay," I said. She didn't answer. She was probably used to being beaten but I wasn't about to do that. "Do you want a new life," I asked. She looked up confused I didn't think she was understanding me I just grabbed her arm and took her to my car.
